

Oak-Framed Offices & Gyms

A beautifully crafted workspace designed for focus, comfort and year-round productivity.

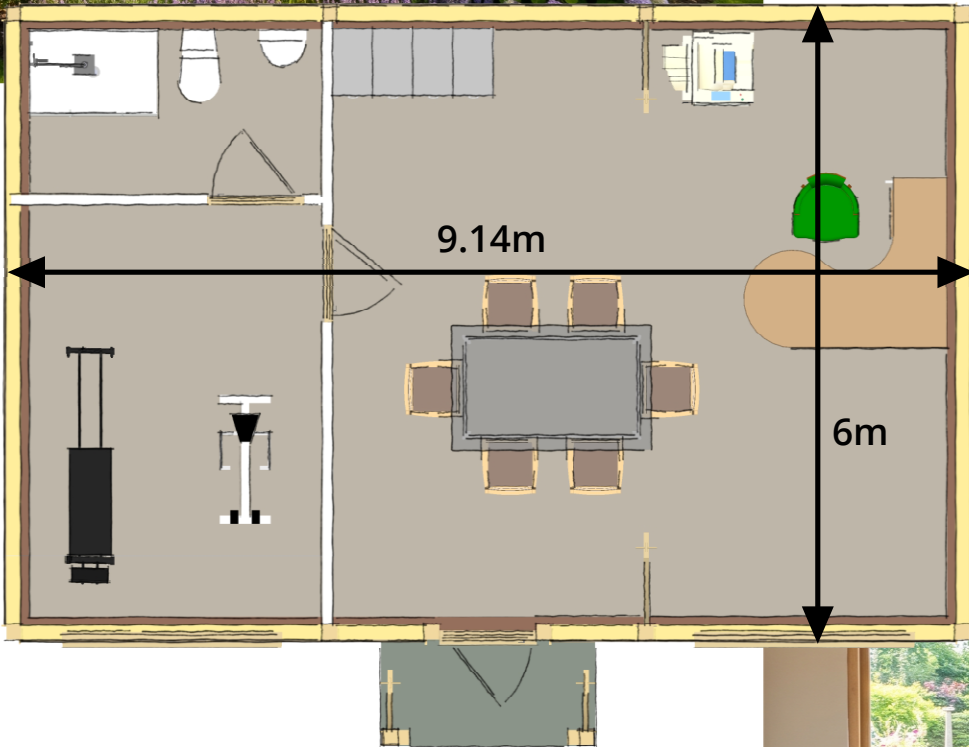

An oak-framed garden office is a premium standalone building that blends traditional craftsmanship with modern working needs.

Built from substantial structural oak and finished with elegant glazing and high-performance insulation, it creates a calm, inspiring environment just steps from your home.

Every office is formed from traditionally jointed solid oak, using mortise-and-tenon connections secured with oak pegs.

The exposed beams, posts and braces give the interior a warm, natural character, while the exterior gradually weathers to a soft silver tone that enhances any garden setting.

With a 27° roof pitch, this annexe could be built under Permitted Development rules.
